Description

For those applications requiring a modern post-style, look to the LF240's from Luraline to give you what you need. A unique fixture for sure, this is both distinct and durable. Made with a cast aluminum housing, this LED fixture emits up to 6,000 lumens while using only 60 watts. The body can be ordered in black, white or bronze, while the acrylic drop-lens is only available in white. LF204F features a hidden flat panel lens.
